

HAM RADIO TECHNICIAN CLASS

To obtain your own FCC license and callsign. NO age limit.

Hello Potential Hams,

I will be teaching a weekend Ham Radio Technician License Class on May 26th and 27th at the Denver Scout office, 10455 W. 6th Ave. upstairs in CAP. We will start at 9am and go to about 3pm both days. I'll be using PowerPoint materials and lots of demonstrations.

There is no cost for the class but I expect the class members to buy the study book before you attend class. I also highly recommend the web site below and their study materials. The Tech book is about $22 and makes a good reference book once you have your license.

<http://www.hamradioschool.com/ham-radio-study-guide-hamradioschool-com/> .

The Technician book can be purchased from Amazon

https://www.amazon.com/s/ref=nb\_sb\_noss?url=search-alias%3Dstripbooks&field-keywords=ham+rado+school

You could pick one up in Denver at Ham Radio Outlet

<http://www.hamradio.com/locations.cfm?storeid=10> .

You will have to take an FCC exam sometime after the class is over in order to get your license. We will discuss scheduled times and locations as part of the class. – It's not that hard...

You should bring your own lunch and snack foods.

>> By the way the exam questions will be changed by the FCC as of July 1st. If you have been waiting to become an Amateur Radio Operator - - - NOW IS THE TIME <<

If you have any questions feel free to get in touch with me.
